Participation in a meeting through use of conference telephone constitutes presence in person at that meeting so long as all directors participating in the meeting are able to hear one another. ## SECTION 8. REGULAR AND ANNUAL MEETINGS

Regular meetings of directors shall be held no less than on a quarterly basis and a regular schedule will be planned on a yearly basis.

If this corporation makes no provision for members, then, at the annual meeting of directors held in March of each year, directors shall be elected by the board of directors in accordance with this section. Cumulative voting by directors for the election of directors shall not be permitted. The

SECTION 10. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Regular meetings of the board may be held without notice. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjoumed meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place of the adjourned meeting are fixed at the meeting adjourned and if such adjoumed meeting is held no more than twenty-four (24) hours from the time of the original meeting. Notice shall be given of any adjourned regular or special meeting to directors absent from the original meeting if the adjourned meeting is held more than twenty-four (24) hours from the time of the original meeting.

SECTION 11. CONTENTS OF NOTICE

Notice of meetings not herein dispensed with shall specify the place, day, and hour of the meeting. The purpose of any board meeting need not be specified in the notice.

SECTION 12. WAIVER OF NOTICE AND CONSENT TO HOLDING MEETINGS

The transactions of any meeting of the board, however called and noticed or wherever held, are as valid as though the meeting had been duly held after proper call and notice, provided a quorum, as hereinafter defined, is present and provided that either before or after the meeting each director not present signs a waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

SECTION 13. QUORUM FOR MEETINGS

A quorum shall consist of 4 Directors.
Except as otherwise provided in these bylaws or in the articles of incorporation of this corporation, or by law, no business shall be considered by the board at any meeting at which a quorum, as hereinafter defined, is not present, and the only motion which the Chair shall entertain at such meeting is a motion to adjourn. However, a majority of the directors present at such meeting may adjourn from time to time until the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the board.

When a meeting is adjourned for lack of a quorum, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at such meeting, other than by announcement at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, except as provided in Section 10 of this Article.

The directors present at a duly called and held meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to do business notwithstanding the loss of a quorum at the meeting due to a withdrawal of directors from the meeting, provided that any action thereafter taken must be approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting or such greater percentage as may be required by law, or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of this corporation.

Any director may be represented by a substitute at any meeting provided the other directors are notified one week prior to the meeting. The substitute will not have voting rights. The substitute will represent the director's interests with regard to agenda items as agreed upon by the director and the designated substitute. The substitute's presence shall not affect the quorum count.

SECTION 14. MAJORITY ACTION AS BOARD ACTION

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the board of directors, unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws of this corporation, or provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, particularly those provisions relating to appointment of committees (Section 5212), approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a material financial interest (Section 5233) and indemnification of directors (Section 5238e), require a greater percentage or different voting rules for approval of a matter by the board.

SECTION 15. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Meetings of the board of directors shall be presided over by the chairperson of the board, or, if no such person has been so designated or, in his or her absence, the president of the corporation or, in his or her absence, by the vice president of the corporation or, in the absence of each of these persons, by a chairperson chosen by a majority of the directors present at the meeting. The secretary of the corporation shall act as secretary of all meetings of the board, provided that, in his or her absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Meetings shali be governed by Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised Version, as such rules may be revised from time to tirne, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these bylaws, with the articles of incorporation of this corporation, or with provisions of law.

SECTION 16. ACTION BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT WITHOUT MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. For the purposes of this Section only, "all members of the board" shall not include any "interested director" as defined in Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the board of directors without a meeting and that the bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to so act, and such statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

SECTION 17. VACANCIES

If this corporation has any members, then, if the corporation has fewer than fifty (50) members, directors may be removed without cause by a majority of all members, or, if the corporation has fifty (50) or more members, by vote of a majority of the votes represented at a membership meeting at which a quorum is present.

If this corporation has no members, directors may be removed without cause by a majority of the directors then in office.

Any director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the chairperson of the board, the president, the secretary, or the board of directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. No director may resign if the corporation would then be left without a duly elected director or directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the attorney general.

Vacancies on the board may be filled by approval of the board or, if the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum, by (1) the unianimous written consent of the directors then in office, (2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice complying with this Article of these bylaws, or (3) a sole remaining director. If this corporation has members, however, vacancies created by the removal of a director may be filled only by the approval of the members. The members, if any, of this corporation may elect a director at any time to fill any vacancy not filled by the directors.

A person elected to fill a vacancy as provided by this Section shall hold office until the next annual election of the board of directors or until his or her death, resignation, or removal from office.

SECTION 18. NONLIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

The directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the corporation.

SECTION 19. INDENNIFICATION BY CORPORATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER AGENTS

claim, issue, or matter, therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such proceeding.

If such person either settles any such claim or sustains a judgment against him or her, then indemnification against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts reasonably incurred in connection with such proceedings shall be provided by this corporation but only to the extent allowed by, and in accordance with the requirements of, Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

SECTION 20. INSURANCE FOR CORPORATE AGENTS

The board of directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation (including a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the corporation) against any liability other than for violating provisions of law relating to self-dealing (Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law) asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

WOMEN WITH PAIN COALITION

Mission

To raise public awareness, educate women about pain and the importance of pain management, and promote legislative advocacy as a means of ensuring the ethical and equal treatment of all women with pain.

Vision

The Women With Pain Coalition is dedicated to improving the treatment of all women with pain, particularly those who are under-served by raising public awareness, educating women about pain and the importance of pain management, and promoting legislative advocacy.

Through these collective actions, all Women With Pain will no longer be victimized by cultural myths and professional misconceptions, which most often result in the discounting and/or dismissal of their pain reports as being "all in their head", "psychogenic", "hysterical", "hormonal", or otherwise "not real", and may lead to serious or life-threatening medical consequences.

All Women With Pain will be guaranteed a standard of care comparable to their male counterparts and will be allowed to express their pain experience in a way that is true to their nature, without fear of being labeled "too emotional".

Ultimately, the Women With Pain Coalition will enable all women to maintain the quality of their lives and to be empowered with the knowledge and self-dignity to demand this basic human right.

Governing Leadership

The Women With Pain Coalition is governed by a Board of Directors and operates through the efforts of volunteers.

The current members of the Board of Directors are:

The Need for the Women With Pain Coalition

Numerous studies in recent years have established that women are more likely to be under treated for their pain. A comprehensive report published in 2001 further concluded, "Women's pain reports are taken less seriously than men's, and women receive less aggressive treatment than men for their pain." It added, "Women are more likely to have their pain reports discounted as 'emotional' or 'psychogenic' and, therefore, 'not real'."

According to the National Institutes of health, women experience more pain (lower threshold and tolerance) than men and are more prone to chronic pain disorders such as fibromyalgia, reflex sympathetic dystrophy, migraines, rheumatoid arthritis, vulvodynia, etc. Other research has concluded women are more likely to develop a chronic pain syndrome after experiencing trauma similar to that experienced by a man.

Many troubling paradoxes have emerged in regards to women and their pain management.

While women have higher pain-related disorder prevalence, and are more biologically sensitive to pain, their pain reports are more likely to be dismissed and treatment delayed than their male counterparts.

Although women have more coping mechanisms to deal with pain, this may contribute to a general perception that they can put up with more pain and that their pain does not need to be taken as seriously.

Despite the fact that women more often and earlier report their pain to a health care provider, they are more likely to have their pain characterized as having an "emotional" and "psychological" causation.

The effects of the above (and others) factors taken together are compounded by the inability and/or unwillingness of society, as a whole, to acknowledge the existence, persistence, and adverse impact of gender and racial/ethnic biases. Further, health care providers are woefully undereducated regarding pain and it's management in general.

The Women With Pain Coalition further recognizes that medically underserved women of all ethnic and cultural backgrounds experience greater suffering from unrecognized, unacknowledged and untreated pain that leads to a wide range of negative psycho socioeconomic life disruptions. More specifically, the possibility of extensive harm to families and children is very real due to a women's traditional role as family caretaker and ever-increasing role as monetary provider.

Another example, if the proposal is going to an organization whose focus is women's rights or civil liberties... we will want to add a sentence to the overall goal like... "ensure that society protects the rights of women with pain"...and we would want to make our specific funding request for a portion or a specific project based on the mission of the organization.
